MOTION TO TEMPORARILY MODIFY CONDITION OF RELEASE I.

Mr. Bedard has pled guilty to Receipt of Child Pornography. He is out of custody, on Bond, pending sentencing, and supervised by Pretrial Services. Among his conditions of release, Mr. Bedard is subject to home confinement. He has been fully compliant on pretrial release. He completed the Ridge House outpatient treatment program. He now lives on his own. He is sober, working full time, and attending counseling and treatment. Mr. Bedard has engaged with his substance abuse earnestly and with great dedication. He has formed a strong bond with both the residents and treatment providers at Ridge House. Mr. Bedard recently expressed to Pretrial Services a wish to spend Thanksgiving with his treatment "family" in Ridgehouse. This motion follows.

18 U.S.C. § 3142(c) (3) provides "[t]he judicial officer may at any time amend the order to impose additional or different conditions of release." Mr. Bedard requests that this court temporarily modify the condition of home confinement to allow Mr. Bedard to attend Thanksgiving dinner at Ridge House during the times set by Pretrial Service. This Motion is unopposed by Pretrial Services of the Assistant United States Attorney Shannon Bryant.
